Take the time to find out who’s pitching and study them.

Know when to bet

So, if you are betting the favorite you will want to make your bet as early as possible before all the action comes in and the bookie is forced to charge you more.

However, if you are taking the underdog in a game, it will be more advantageous to you to wait until close to game time when the underdog reaches its best price

For example, if you can save 10 cents from each moneyline you bet, it will translate into hundreds or thousands of dollars over the MLB season that will stay in your bankroll and not end up with the bookie’s coffers.
