What is a surprise bill?

Here are some examples of when consumers have gotten surprise bills in the past:

A consumer had a surgery at an in-network hospital, but the anesthesiologist who provided care was not in their health insurer network. Even though the consumer did not have a choice in who their anesthesiologist was, that provider sends a bill to the consumer after the surgery.

Consumers are no longer put in the middle of billing disputes between health ins urers and out-of-network providers when seeking non-emergency services. Consumer s can only be billed for their in-network cost sharing (co-pay, co-insurance, or) Ti T* PT /
