Gambling online for real money is not yet legal in California, including online casinos, online poker, and online sportsbooks.

Luckily, you can still play legally at social and sweepstakes online casinos.

The gambling age in California

The official California gambling age is 18 for pari-mutuel horse wagering, the state lottery, and bingo games.

All legal casino wagering in the state takes place in tribal casinos on Indian reservations, and each casino is regulated by the tribe.

Excluding the California Lottery, all gambling winnings are taxable in the Golden State.

You'll need to report anything above this threshold or any winnings over 30 times your original bet on a W-9 tax withholding form.
