What is Voluntary Time Off?

Companies that willingly invest time and effort in embracing their corporate soc ial responsibility allow their employees to take VTO. Companies do it to provide their employees an opportunity to participate in community service programs.

Employees have to fill out the VTO Request Form and submit it to their manager 7 days before the requested time-off. Such approval is at the discretion of the m anager and HR.

Volunteer time off best practices is focused on uplifting communities with colla borations with non-profits. The practices might include administrative tasks and event planning of the VTO program. Volunteer time off or VTO time duration must be balanced with other forms of leaves to provide employees with adequate discr
