It is also worth mentioning that along with a great understanding of the game and a good strategy, they need to be extremely disciplined in order to manage their bets successfully.

With soft 20, you are dealt an ace assigned a value of 11 next to a 9 in your hand.

The latter either lack any aces or have an ace but its value is 1 rather than 11.

Soft 19 is a stand versus all dealer upcards (deuce through ace) in double-deck and multiple-deck blackjack variations where the dealer must stand on soft 17. Thus, in such cases, it is best to keep the decent total value they give players by simply choosing to stand.

The reasoning behind doubling here is that the player's soft 19 dominates the dealer's weak 6-up in H17 multi-deck games.
