Today the popular Baccarat game is open to everyone at both land and online Baccarat casinos and there are versions for every sized budget. However, while the game may not change much from one to the other, no two casinos are quite alike.

That is why we have a careful rating procedure for online Baccarat casinos and we only recommend those that meet the highest standards of customer service and fair play.

It is played with a shoe of three decks and the banker remains the same for the entire shoe.

Players' hands are then revealed and winning hands are paid out.

Flat betting systems require you to place the same bet on every hand, negative systems require you to increase your bet after a loss, and positive systems require you to increase your bet after a win.

However, in the vast majority of casinos only Punto Banco is played.

Furthermore, the game does not require any complex strategies and in fact, it is possible to explain the mathematically optimal way of playing in just one sentence, "Always bet on the Banker".
