Why do I need to pay for movies on Prime video even if I have taken the Amazon Prime subscription?
Why does Amazon Prime charge money to watch a movie even after being a Prime member?

My film, Under the Boardwalk: The MONOPOLY Story, was initially passed over by Netflix. However, I believe that after seeing our film's modest success on iTunes as well as our grassroots campaign to get folks to add the film to their Netflix DVD queue to show interest in the title, Netflix made a purchase of DVDs for their DVD service. A few months later, Netflix made an offer for a 1-year non-exclusive streaming license in the low 5 figures to our DVD distributor, New Video Group. Both them and us thought it made sense to take it, so we accepted the offer, and Netflix began streaming it in
