You should never send an item without receiving payment, or confirmation of paym ent. However, that isn't always enough to ensure that you don't get scam med, as people could share fake bank accounts. Also, PayPal doesn't offer re funds for payments sent using the Friends and Family option, so always choose th e 'goods and services option' instead.

How to check when an account was created on Facebook Marketplace **

When buying an item through PayPal, you can choose the 'goods and services' or 'friends and family'. The latter is essentially a transaction for people you know which means they don't have to pay a fee to receive payment

. But scammers are aware of this and could be forcing you to use this option, as
