Some states have gone as far as banning betting on in-state college teams, but that didn't happen in Florida.

Will sports betting bonuses be offered in Florida? Absolutely.

Once the ban was removed, each state was given the opportunity to determine their own sports betting laws for themselves.

Rhode Island, Pennsylvania and New York are among the states who have already passed legislation.

Some, like New Jersey and Pennsylvania had pre-approved bills that were ready to come into effect once the federal ban was lifted.

The situation was summed up well by Danny Rachek, executive director of the Vermont Lottery, when said, "I don't know of anybody who is pushing for this in Vermont."

Vermont Sports Betting Laws Summary

Vermont had a brief period with legal horse racing, but interest was limited and the last track closed in 1991.

Due to this, support can be found for professional teams from around New England.
